Welcome to
The Cranfield Trust

FROM THE CRANFIELD TRUST

As this is often a time of year for organisations to review the way forward, I thought it was an appropriate opportunity to remind you of the Cranfield Trust's free management consultancy service. The service is available all year round and we now have capacity to take on more projects.

We can help in many ways. Perhaps your business plan needs updating or you are considering a new trading opportunity and would like some help in planning it.

You may be thinking of taking a fresh look at your marketing plan or have staffing issues (e.g. reviewing salary scales, reporting structure, team building). We would be pleased to help with any of these.

Each project is individually tailored to meet the particular needs of your organisation. Our remit is to work with registered charities and not for profit organisations addressing issues of poverty, disability and social exclusion and we do have to interpret this criterion quite carefully. You can find out more about the Trust on our website www.cranfieldtrust.org.

If you are interested in working with one of our team of 650 skilled volunteers, or would like to discuss a possible free consultancy project, please email me at iain.ferguson@cranfieldtrust.org - we would be happy to work with you.

With best wishes

Iain Ferguson
